Golf Courses

Praia D'El Rey

Arguably one of the most stunning golf courses in Europe, Praia D'El Rey is set among extensive pine forests and rolling dunes, offering spectacular views of the Atlantic Ocean and the Berlengas Islands beyond. This 18-hole course was designed by renowned American golf architect Cabell B. Robinson and was inaugurated on 14th June 1997. Deep bunkers, sloping greens, and sandy dunes contrast beautifully with lush fairways, making this a complete and rewarding golfing challenge.

West Cliffs

Carefully designed to preserve the natural terrain, West Cliffs is a world-class 18-hole seaside links course along Portugal's Silver Coast. Rolling sand dunes, coastal vegetation, and pine groves frame sweeping ocean views, offering a breathtaking and immersive golf experience. This privileged and exclusive setting will both mesmerise and challenge you as you take on the raw forces of nature and strive to perfect your game.

Royal Óbidos

The golf course at Royal Óbidos has been masterfully designed by the legendary Severiano Ballesteros. His artistic vision and expertise have created a truly exceptional course that lives up to the resort's high standards. Seamlessly integrated into the natural landscape, the 6,400-metre course makes the most of the gently undulating terrain and offers a satisfying experience for golfers of all skill levels.
